

"From this day all generations will call me blessed: the Almighty has done great things for me and holy is his Name. He has cast down the mighty from their thrones, and has lifted up the lowly."

Stewardship: In today's reading, St. Paul encourages us not to grow weary or lose hearts, but to persevere in following Jesus. Our willingness to give of ourselves, even in the face of conflict and division, is one way to measure our discipleship.

Vacation Days

By Deacon Dan Dunn

Vacation is a great time of the year because by definition things are different. Our routine changes. Daily activity is different and new goals are set. Hopefully life becomes more relaxed and carefree. If our summertime activity is to work in a farming, camping or other outdoor environment, our activity could be even more strenuous than normal. It's good to let vacation time effect a stretch in our lives, physically, mentally and spiritually.

How do you stretch yourself spiritually? Try new forms of prayer. Take a walk with the Lord in a garden either in reality or in meditation, thanking Him for every aspect of your life. Schedule a little time each day to spend in talking with God either in the morning, afternoon or evening, followed by a little time for listening to God. Go to the library to find a book or magazine on spiritual growth and then read it. Take some time this summer to read the Gospel according to Matthew. Recall the funny incidents that God has included in your life during the last year. Recognize what a privilege it is to have whatever responsibilities He has put in your life. Reflect on the opportunities that can come from every hardship you bear in life. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you to be able to praise and thank God for it all. Have a happy, rewarding and restful summer and return in a few weeks refreshed and stronger.

Mass Offerings

Due to recent change in Archdiocesan policy, starting Sunday August 15th all Mass stipends will be $10, regardless of whether they are announced, held on a weekday or Sunday or are unannounced. Parishioners should note that this $10 offering is for the celebrating priest, not the parish. In the past, parishioners have been most generous in supporting the local Church as well as their priests through these customary offerings. Any offering given above the stated offering amount will be considered a gift to the parish and is most appreciated. All mass offerings will be satisfied according to Church law and custom. These normally will be celebrated locally in one of our own churches or chapel. Anyone with questions about this new policy is invited to speak with one of the priests. Thank you for the generous support of your clergy and parish.

Brazilian Mass

The Brazilian Mass will be held at 5:30pm on Sunday evenings until further notice.

We commend into God's care Rose Marie Calomo, Leo Ciaramitaro, Giuseppe DiMercurio, Philip Parisi, John Randazza, and Donna Sheehan whose funeral Masses were celebrated at our Parish recently. Please remember them and their families in your prayers.
