

HOLY FAMILY PARISH, CAPE ANN, MASSACHUSETTS

Extraordinary moments rooted in the ordinary:

As we continue on and move into the liturgical season known to us as "Ordinary Time" it seems to take on a "ho hum nothing special" time of the year. But this season is anything but! Looking at the Gospel readings for this first 7 weeks of Ordinary Time we see extraordinary things happen; Andrew and Peter speak of finding the Messiah, local fishermen rethink their priorities in relation to God and follow this new Rabbi Jesus, who later commands unclean spirits to leave an individual, heals Simon's mother in law, Lepers, and even a paralytic man. We have come to know these stories as some of the miracles of Jesus; moments in the lives of many who receive the gift of life. But what about us, have we experienced such extraordinary moments? This very morning on the news I heard of an officer who was named Lazarus because he came back from being pronounced dead after a cardiac arrest, 7 babies were born and then a surprise 8th and all breathing on their own! There are many more and the list goes on; we get over the flu, we find a new job, or our children return home safe from their first drive in the car alone. Each of these moments are God's presence in our lives, graced moments or miracles which are anything but an ordinary occurrence. It is my hope that we recognize the graced moments of God in our lives and note them as "God-incidences" that make our lives extraordinary. Dawn Alves
